

Filed under the authority of the Broadcasting Act

Updated October 21, 2021

Has automated emergency alert message distribution equipment been installed, maintained and tested for all undertakings in accordance with Broadcasting Regulatory Policy CRTC 2014-444, Broadcasting Orders (CRTC 2014-445, 2014-446, 2014-447 and 2014-448) and any applicable regulations (Radio Regulations, 1986, Television Broadcasting Regulations, 1987 and Broadcasting Distribution

Should be Yes

1 Regulations)?

Did you receive and distribute the bi-annual public test alerts issued by alerting authorities, which generally occur in May and November as defined in CRTC Telecom Decision 2019-239?

Should be Yes

3 If not, explain the reasons why:

4 Have there been any issues with the distribution of actual alert messages in the previous year?

Contact NCRA if this is the case
Should be No

5 If yes, what was the nature of the problems and how were these addressed?

Contact NCRA if this is the case

6 What are your direct capital costs in the last fiscal year attributable to NPAS (e.g. purchase, replacement, or addition of equipment)?

If any

7 What are your ongoing costs, including salaries, directly attributable to participation in NPAS in the last fiscal year (e.g. maintenance and administration)?

if any

8 How many complaints, comments and queries were received in the previous year regarding alerts sent by your entity?

If any

9 What was the nature of the complaints, comments and queries received?

Contact NCRA if this is the case

Please use the space provided below to supply any comments, explanations, methodological notes, qualifiers or other important